Congratulations on 101st birth anniversary of Nanak Chand Rattu

Prem Kumar Chumber
Editor-in-Chief Ambedkar Times

Though Babasaheb Dr. B.R. Ambedkar did not born in Punjab, but in his mission, he got more support from the people of this state than any other state including Maharashtra and Madhya Pradesh (Mhow, his birth place). The names of Sohan Lal Shastri, Bimal Prasad, Kartar Singh and Nanak Chand Rattu are the prominent among his followers from Punjab, who remained with him until his last breath. Among them Nanak Chand Rattu was the most prominent. Born on February 6th, 1922, in village Sakruli of Hoshiarpur District of Punjab, Nanak Chand Rattu is best known as the most closely associated and loyal lifetime Private Secretary to Babasaheb Dr. Ambedkar who served him dedicatedly for over 17 years. He was with him till late night on a day before and was the first one after Dr. Savita Ambedkar (2nd wife of Babasaheb) to notice his Mahaprinirvan on December 6th, 1956.

Nanak Chand Rattu came into the contact of Babasaheb Dr. Ambedkar after a year of his arrival in Delhi and remained in his service, first in person during his life, and after his Mahaprinirvan, in the form of writing his reminiscences and remembrances about him. Once he came into his Babasaheb's contact, he never missed a single day, including Sundays and official holidays, in his service before and after the government service duty hours. After the mortal journey of the messiah of downtrodden and the Chief architect of the Constitution of Independent India, Nanak Chand Rattu wrote a large number of books about the life and teachings of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar. Some of the most widely read among them are: Last Few Years of Dr. Ambedkar; Little Known Facets of Dr. Ambedkar; Dr. Ambedkar: Important Messages, Sayings, Wit and Wisdom; Reminiscences and Remembrances of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar; Pioneers of Ambedkar Buddhist Movement in United Kingdom.

For his untiring service to the mission of Babasaheb Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, Nanak Chand Rattu was awarded Bheem Medal, Bheem Rattan Award, Ambedkar Centenary Award, Anand Award, Ambedkar Rattan Centenary Award, Vishvratna Dr. Ambedkar Bhushan Award and Letters of Appreciation by various national and international bodies within home and abroad. He also had embraced Buddhism with Baba Sahib. He was one of the few who accompanied the mortal remains of Babasaheb Dr. B.R. Ambedkar to Mumbai. His writings about the life and teachings of Babasaheb are a rich treasure for those who do research on Babasaheb and his mission of the annihilation of caste. His writings provided vivid description of events related with Dr. Ambedkar's life and mission. Ambedkar Times and Desh Doaba Weeklies remember him reverently on his 101st birth anniversary and pay him floral tribute.

NANAK CHAND RATTU

A TRUE AND TRUSTWORTHY SOLDIER OF DR. B.R. AMBEDKAR

On the historic occasion of 101st Birth Anniversary of late Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu, Private Secretary of Bharat Rattan Babasaheb, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar from 1941 to 1956, I am driven by an internal urge to share some of my personal reminiscences of Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu which made him reckon as an iconic name associated with the life-long vision of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar.

As regards his personal life Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu was born on February 6, 1922, in village Sakruli, in Hoshiarpur District of Punjab and after completing his High School education in 1938 he moved to Delhi in November 1939 in search of a job. After strenuous efforts and difficult times he got a job in Government of India in 1941. While in service he worked his way up and passed his B.A degree Examination. He had to abandon his studies for M.A in the middle in order to serve Dr. Ambedkar.

Because of his hard work, loyalty and personal sacrifices in the service of his mentor, Mr. Rattu was able to win a unique level of trust, confidence and respect from Babasaheb, which he cherished and upheld as a holy relic throughout the rest of his life after Babasaheb's Pririvana on December, 6th, 1956.

My personal remembrances of Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu go back to the year 1955-1956 when I moved from Punjab to Delhi in search of a job and came in close contact with him in Dev Nagar, Karol Bagh, New Delhi where he was living with his family in a Government allotted accommodation. I even stayed at Mr. Rattu's home for some time in 1955 before I could settle down in a job.

Mr. Rattu being quite senior to most of us in age and social status was highly respected among the community. At that time he was fully devoted in his task as private secretary to Babasaheb who was residing at 26, Alipur Road, Delhi.

Almost every day Mr. Nanak Chand used to go on his Bike to Alipur Road and usually come back to his home in Karol Bagh late at night to get ready in the morning to go to his office in Central Secretariat area in New Delhi. Sometimes he had to stay overnight with Babasaheb depending on the volume of work he had to handle single handedly. It was a great personal sacrifice on the part of Mr. Rattu which was adversely impacting on his health as well as his professional career. But in spite of all this there was no lapse in his dedication towards Babasaheb. Like a shadow he remained in his sacred company till his last breath and was to Dr. Ambedkar what Ananda was to Lord Buddha.

During the course of my association with Mr. Rattu, I learnt a lot about the life-long struggle, sacrifices and accomplishments of Babasaheb for equality and emancipation of the suppressed sections of society.

In 1956 Babasaheb was not keeping a stable health because of the heavy work load and mounting pressure on his mind to complete what he had undertaken to do.

It was not possible to see him in person except through Mr. Rattu who had direct access to Babasaheb without any interference even from his wife. So it was Mr. Rattu gave me an opportunity to see Babasaheb in person many times at his residence on Alipur Road which was hardly a hundred yards away from my office in Old Secretariat area.

On the fateful day of December 6th, 1956 while, as usual, I was going to my office on my bike when the heart breaking news of Babasaheb's mysterious death in his sleep was unleashed on All India Radio. It was a nerve wrecking news spreading like a wild fire all over the Globe.

Skipping my day from work I went straight to 26, Alipur Road which was just at a stone's throw from my office. Only a handful of persons including Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu, Mr. Sohan Lal Shastri and Mr. M.R Bhardwaj, close confidants of Babasaheb, were there ahead of me. Since Babasaheb's dead body was still in his bed-room on the ground floor I joined Mr. Rattu and four other persons present there to co-ordinate and help physically in moving the body to the spacious Drawing Room close by to facilitate the viewing by a stream of mourners rolling in from different parts of the adjoining states. I was an eye witness to a crowd of people crying and screaming and pressing for post-mortem and unbiased investigation in the mystery of Babasaheb's sudden passing away. Many people were loudly blaming Babasaheb's wife for her role in the mysterious death. It was only Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu who

Nanak Chand Rattu- An Unsung Warrior of the community

February 6 is the 101st birth anniversary of an unsung warrior of the community, Nanak Chand Rattu (February 6, 1922- September 15, 2002), a dedicated and close came into contact of Babasaheb Ambedkar. Leader of the oppressed and suppressed segments of the society, and offered his services with total dedication and devotion in 1941

Recently, I learnt from a TV interview of Shashi Sidharath, Rattu Sahib's daughter-in-law (wife of his son Sidharath) that her mother-in-law that is the wife of Rattu Sahib was such a nice and homely lady that every evening on her husband's late return from Babasaheb's residence, she used give him fresh and hot food and fully supported her husband without any murmur. I vow my head in Naman to her also on this important day.

Nanak Chand Rattu remained with Babasaheb for almost 17 years till his Parinirvan on December 6, 1956. Rattu Sahib was almost a part of the family and he was the first person who was called to Babasaheb's bed side by Mai Saheb Savita Ambedkar, wife of the icon, on the fateful morning of December 6, 1956. I was told that Rattu Sahib himself informed the high-ups in the government about the sad demise of Babasaheb including the residence of PM Jawaharlal Nehru. Mai Saheb even took along Rattu Sahib to Bombay (Mumbai) for the last journey and rites of the departed leader. Physical connect between Babasaheb Ambedkar and Nanak Chand Rattu ended but spiritual and emotional bonds between the two remained till Rattu Sahib passed away in September, 2002 in Delhi.

Earlier Rattu Sahib retired from his government job as Under Secretary in February 1980, a dignified position in the bureaucratic hierarchy in the corridors of power. Nanak Chand Rattu was a reservoir of information and knowledge about Babasaheb with first hand touch and experience. Some of the details are duly registered in his 5 books which he wrote about Babasaheb Ambedkar and his mission. Two of these immensely informative and educative books, Reminiscences and Remembrances of Dr. Ambedkar and Last Few Years of Dr. Ambedkar, were reviewed by me and are available on the links given below.

Some of the personal belongings of Ambedkar Saheb which were available with Rattu Sahib were thoughtfully donated by him to various museums and memorials of the leader for the benefit of the generations to come.

Naman to Nanak Chand Rattu, an unsung warrior of the community, was a man of sterling worth by all standards on his 101st birth anniversary, February 6, 2023.

Dr. Ambedkar during the conversion ceremony at Nagpur 14.10.1956 with Mrs. Savitha Ambedkar, Mr. Nanakchand Rattu (his personal assistant) and Samta Sainik Dal volunteers.

Aide of Babasaheb B. R. Ambedkar. Rattu Sahib was born in a remote village Sakruli of Hoshiarpur District of Punjab. After Matriculation, he went to Delhi in search of a job in 1938. Initially, to sustain himself, he did whatever came his way and succeeded in getting a job in the central government in 1941. Rattu, a laborious young man, did his B.A. in part-time and joined higher studies of M.A. In the process, as a son of the soil and an awakened person, he as an all-purpose Aide not only in secretarial assistance but also in the day to day personal and household chorus at the residence of Babasaheb. Rattu Sahib soon won the trust of his benevolent boss with sheer dedication.

He will reach the residence of Babasaheb early in the morning on his bi-cycle before going to his own office and again in the evening after office and will remain at the disposal of Babasaheb till late in the evening.

was profusely crying but was persuaded by Mr. Sohan Lal Shastri to appease the surging rage of the uncontrollable crowd.

Prime Minister Pt. Jawahar Lal Nehru also visited Babasaheb's residence to pay his tributes and enquired from Mr. Rattu, Sohan Lal Shastri and Mrs. Savita Ambedkar about the circumstances of the death. I was a young man of almost 21 years of age at the time and am also visible in the picture now getting viral on the internet, standing in the crowd next to Pt. Nehru, Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu and Sohan Lal Shastri near Babasaheb's dead body. The entire cabinet of the Prime Minister also visited the residence to offer their condolences.

In an attempt to avoid the surging wrath of the crowds of followers of Babasaheb, Mrs. Savita Ambedkar insisted to transport the dead body to Sarnath (Place of Buddhist shrines) but was vehemently opposed by Nanak Chand Rattu and other close supporters because more than five lakhs of Babasaheb's followers were waiting in Bombay to participate in the funeral procession. As stated by Mr. Rattu and Sohan Lal Shastri no financial help was available from Government of India including the Prime Minister to air-lift the mortal remains of Babasaheb to Bombay for final ceremonies and cremation. Even Mrs. Savita Ambedkar declined to help. It was only Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu who offered to shoulder this big and moral responsibility and managed to collect some money at the spur of the moment from some close and staunch followers of Babasaheb to pay for transporting the body to Bombay by a chartered plane. Since the collection fell short of the required payment, Babu Jagjivan Ram, the then Communication Minister came to rescue and authorized the chartered flight leaving the balance to be settled later. 3 -mile long procession was taken out from 26 Alipur Road to Safdarjung airport for flying the mortal remains of Babasaheb to Bombay for cremation. Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu, Mr. Sohan Lal Shastri, Mr. M.R Bhardwaj, Mr. Shankranand Shastri, Mr. Puran Chand Madhar and Mrs. Savita Ambedkar accompanied the body to Bombay.

AWARDS:-In recognition of his laudable and unique services to glorify the contributions of Dr. Ambedkar, many eminent writers and research scholars who wrote the biography of Dr. Ambedkar, highly appreciated and gratefully acknowledged Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu for providing the information and readily available material about the glorious history of Babasaheb's battle in the liberation of the voiceless people.

Mr. Rattu was also the recipient of Bheem Medal, Bheem Rattan Award, Ambedkar centenary Award, Vishvratna Dr. Ambedkar Bhushan Award and many letters of appreciation from Dr. Ambedkar organizations in India.

With restless endeavors of Mr. Rattu, Ambedkar Museum, set up by him in Nagpur has become a historical monument and a famous Buddhist pilgrimage center.

Retired as Under Secretary from Government of India on February 29, 1980 Mr. Rattu continued to remain actively involved and associated with the spread of Dhamma and the noble mission of Babasaheb till his last breath. Though I am permanently settled with my family in USA, I always met Mr. Rattu in Delhi while visiting India.

CONCLUSION: - Much more can be said about Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu's selfless services especially during the last few years of Babasaheb's life at the cost of his personal sacrifices, but I must not refrain from saying that even after Babasaheb's departure Mr. Rattu personally visited all the places connected with the mission of Babasaheb and left no stone unturned in keeping the flame alive and the caravan moving in the direction, his master wanted.

Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu's name will remain with its glow and luster in the galaxy of unrelenting efforts of Babasaheb's vision for breaking the shackles of social barriers. He will remain as an inspiration for future generations.

I also appreciate the services of Mr. Prem Kumar Chumber, Chief Editor, Desh Doaba and Ambedkar Times, the two weekly Newspapers, who always inspires and encourages me to write occasionally on historical as well as day- to- day issues of public interest for publication in the esteemed columns of his Newspapers.

Let me again express my hearty congratulations for celebrating the 101st Birth Anniversary of Mr. Nanak Chand Rattu on February 6th, 2023 who guarded as a true soldier in carrying out the mission of Babasaheb for social emancipation.

Jai Bhim

Train to Banaras - Begumpura Express

Ramesh Chander
Ambassador - I.F.S. (Retired)

Train to Banaras - Begumpura Express from Jalandhar to Varanasi, steals the headlines in the vernacular media of North India every year successively in the month of January/February as a curtain raiser to the celebrations of the Gurburab of Guru Ravidass, a social revolutionary of medieval times. I thought of sharing some bits and pieces of this annual event which has become a great motivator and prompter of the followers of the great Guru not only in India but beyond to seek and appropriate their social empowerment.

The train was started by Sachkhand Dera Ballan of Jalandhar, the great dera of the Doaba region of Punjab, under the stewardship of the then head of the Dera Sant Garib Dass more than two decades ago. It was widely welcomed and caught the imagination of the followers of Guru Ravidass who tended to go to Varanasi to pay obeisance at the Seer Goverdhanpur Holy Site, the birth place of Guru Ravidass at Kanshi on the Aagman Diwas (birthday) of the great Guru. The site was searched, explored and identified by Baba Banta

Singh Ghera of Ad-dharam Mission and his associates including the great Sants of Dera Sachkhand Ballan namely; Sant Sarwn Dass, Sant Hari Dass, Sant Garib Dass and their successors; Sant Niranjn Dass, the current Gadinasheen (Head) of the Dera and Shaheed Sant Ramanand who was assassinated in 2009 at Vienna (Austria) by some fundamentalist Sikhs among others. The site was formally taken over by a Trust created by Dera Sachkhand Ballan for building a befitting memorial of Guru Ravidass. The plot of land at the premises which was registered in the name of a couple prominent residents of Bootan Mandi, a nerve centre of dalit consciousness in Jalandhar, some times in 1968-69 with the funds collected from the leather traders of the area spearheaded by Guru Ravidass Youth Club of which I happened to be the then General Secretary as a young student before I migrated Delhi in the pursuit of career to earn my bread and butter, was duly transferred to the Trust with the efforts of Manohar Lal Mahey, the then Secretary of the Trust and the then Mayor of Jalandhar, Surinder Mahey, both my fellow BootanMandians. The revered Sants of the Dera and the Trust, under the directions of Sant Ramanand, a visionary Sant, involved the bigwigs including President K.R. Narayanan, Babu Kanshi Ram, Behn Mayawati among others and also the well to do followers of Guru Ravidass abroad namely, Swaran Banger, Hans Raj Banga, both of the UK, among others and did his every best to make the site at Sere Goverdhanpur a site of excellence as a tribute to Guru Ravidass. As a natural corollary to all this the Begumpura Express, the famous train has become an important event in the calendar of Dera Sachkhand Ballan and the teeming millions. I understand more such trains have been added from other cities of Punjab to cater to growing demand of the ardent followers of the Guru. It is a matter of gratification to note that the trains are booked on payment on first come-first served basis on payment. The sundry expenses on the train arrangements are borne by the Dera and voluntary donations. Thoughtfully, the Gadinasheen Sant of the Dera leads the Faithfulls in the train every successive year. The train stops at all big stations on the way where the followers of the Guru flock to the station to welcome the elegantly decked up train with cooked langars (food) and other eatables amidst Kirtan of Gurbani (recital and singing of hymns). The Train - Begumpura Express has, thus, become a much acclaimed and sought after event in the celebration of the Guru Ravidass Jyanti. It was gratifying to note that this year the Begumpura Express was flagged off by the Punjab CM Bhagwant Mann with all solemnity and reverence. With these activities, Seer Govardhanpur in Kashi has become a holy place of pilgrimage for millions of devotees. All political dispensations, both the ruling and opposition, fall on each other to show up on the Gurburab and meet the Sant Maharaj of Dera Schkhand Balan with a view to woo the dalit vote banks. Let it be but, to my mind, the Dera has yet to optimized the situation skillfully to make the ruling dispensations to do more to empower the weaker sections of the society and get their due share in the corridors of power. The initiatives like the Train to Banaras tended to generate much needed awareness and made the society stand up for their rights. We need to think of and take such more initiatives for the great good of the community. The Begumpura Express is a blessing of Guru Ravidass as Kaler Kanth said in the folk lore: ਕਾਂਜੀ ਨੂੰ ਗੱਡੀ ਜਾਣੀ ਆਂ; ਕੋਈ ਜਾਉ ਨਸੀਬਾਂ ਵਾਲਾ।

Mr. Ajaypal Singh Bath, a successful businessman in hotel industry in the United States of America and Mr. P. R. Bhatti from California met with honorable Chief Minister of Himachal Pradesh, Shri Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu at Himachal Sadan in New Delhi on February 8th, 2023. The CM and the government officials were pleased to discuss various tourism prospects in the state with the NRI delegation. The Chief Minister assured his full cooperation for any project that the NRI might be interested to invest in the state and directed Shri Bharat Khara IAS, his principal secretary to fully cooperate and provide all necessary assistance to the NRI community. The CM added that his Government will open all the doors for NRIs to invest in the projects of their choice in the field of tourism in the state of Himachal Pradesh. He also stated that he would like to make district Kangra the capital of tourism. The Advocate General, Mr. Anup Kumar Rattan was also present on this occasion.

REMEMBERING LATA MANGESHKAR

ON HER 1st DEATH ANNIVERSARY

It has been a year since Lata Mangeshkar, the queen of melody and Nightingale of India, left this world on February 6th, 2022 at the age of 92 years. Her innumerable fans and lovers of music miss her dearly. She raised the honor of India worldwide with her melodious voice which is an embodiment of divinity. She has left behind an immeasurable treasure of her soul searching songs which have immortalized her.

Lata Ji was born on September 28th, 1929 in Indore Madhya Pradesh in a family of musicians. She inherited her musical talents from her father, Pandit Dina Nath Mangeshkar who was an accomplished vocalist and a theatrical artist in his time. At a very tender and young age of only 13 years, Lata Ji unfortunately lost her father and she, being the eldest child in the family, had to carry the entire financial responsibility to raise a large family left behind. This also kept her away from her school education.

Lata Mangeshkar, being the most well-known doyen in the field of singing, dominated the Bollywood Film Industry for more than seven decades with her God-gifted and golden voice. She has lent her melodious voice in singing to the most glamorous and top heroines of Indian film Industry.

During her long singing career she sang more than twenty five thousand solo songs in 36 languages for about 1000 movies and became an iconic figure in the field of music and singing.

Her voice had the tenacity and the power of impacting the emotions of her listeners.

One of the most famous and patriotic songs "AE MERE WATAN KE LOGO" sung by her on 26th of January, 1963 in the National Stadium, New Delhi to honor the valour and martyrdom of Indian soldiers who sacrificed their lives in Indo-China War of 1962, brought tears to the eyes of Pandit Jawahar Lal Nehru, the then Prime Minister of India.

AWARDS:- A recipient of many National Awards including "BHARAT RATNA and DADASAHEB FALKE" AWARD, Lata Mangeshkar has left an indelible imprint not only on the minds of her fans and admirers but on the entire FILMDOM.

END OF A GOLDEN ERA: - With the passing away of Lata Ji, a golden era of a living legend has come to an end. Death is inevitable and is an unchallengeable act of Almighty

God and everyone who is born has to go sooner or later, but their impeccable contributions to society continue to live and remain embalmed in the minds and souls of those who love and adore them.

I pay my heartfelt tributes to this unforgettable legend on her first death anniversary through the esteemed columns of Ambedkar Times and Desh Doaba with prayers for peace and tranquility of the departed soul who impacted millions worldwide with her god-gifted talents.

Turkey's devastating earthquake comes at a critical time for the country's future

Ankara- Life for millions across Turkey and Syria changed forever on Monday, as two consecutive earthquakes sent shockwaves across hundreds of miles. Nine hours apart and with magnitudes of 7.8 and 7.5 on the Richter scale, the quakes rocked Turkey and Syria and were the region's strongest in nearly a century.

At the time of writing, the death toll from the quakes is more than 17,000, with many still missing and critically injured. The World Health Organization put the number of people affected by the disaster at 23 million. At least 5,000 buildings collapsed, many with residents still inside them. Rescue efforts continue to be the top priority, with some 25,000 deployed in Turkey and thousands more sent in from overseas — but a bitter winter storm now threatens the lives of the survivors and of those still trapped under rubble. Syria, ravaged by 12 years of war and terrorism, is the least prepared to deal with such a crisis. Its infrastructure is heavily depleted, and the country remains under Western sanctions. Thousands of those in the affected areas are already refugees or internally displaced people. With the dust of the catastrophe still settling, regional analysts are zoning in on the longer-term rippling effect that the catastrophe could have on Turkey, a country whose 85 million-strong population was already mired in economic problems and whose military, economy, and politics have a major impact far beyond its borders.
